

Washington University School of Medicine Center for Clinical Imaging Research (CCIR)

Website: <http://ccir.wustl.edu>

Scanners and Imaging

- Avanto 1.5T MRI System
- Trio 3.0T MRI System
- Biograph mMR PET/MRI
- Biograph 40 PET/CT
- CT scanning services are available on the 40-row CT of the PET/CT

Services

The CCIR provides a full range of biomedical imaging services to support clinical research projects. These services include (1) Pre-Study services that help investigators design, set up, and kick off the study; (2) Scanning, that provide assistance in executing, monitoring and evaluating the study; and, (3) IT Management services to handle, track, and process imaging data.

- Subject waiting area
- Two consultation rooms
- Nurses' workstation
- Locked supply storage area
- Temporary storage area
- Numerous temporary work spaces
- Specimen refrigerator (temporary storage)
- Conference room

Contacts

- Front desk (314) 747-2300 – Crystal Henderson
- Nursing – Betsy Thomas, RN (thomasbe@wustl.edu)
- Director – Pamela Woodard, M.D. (woodardp@mir.wustl.edu)
- Associate Director, Hongyu An, D. Sc (hongyuan@wustl.edu)